

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

1 No Poverty Support faculty and student research through collections, consultation, and subject librarian expertise.	2 Zero Hunger Host or support student food and staple pantries for those in need.	3 Good Health and Well-being Programming wellness events: yoga, stress relief during finals, group fitness sessions, therapy dogs.
4 Quality Education Convening research panels, book displays, guest speakers, and research communities of practice for many related goal areas.	5 Gender Equality Library as a safe space regardless of gender orientation, place physical cards and digital signatures. Adoption of gender-neutral restrooms.	6 Clean Water &amp; Sanitation Installation of refillable water stations to cut plastic waste. Fixtures that use less water use in restrooms.
7 Affordable &amp; Clean Energy Library facilities construction and renovation – pursue LEED certifications, zero waste options, clean energy possibilities.	8 Decent Work &amp; Economic Growth Support faculty and student research through collections, consultation, and subject librarian expertise.	9 Industry, Innovation &amp; Infrastructure Support entrepreneurship and innovation Initiatives on campus. Provide community programming for these topics.
10 Reduced Inequalities Development of curricula for financial literacy course to help students make sound financial decisions.	11 Sustainable Cities &amp; Communities Support faculty and student research through collections, consultation, and subject librarian expertise.	12 Responsible Production &amp; Consumption Purchasing eco-friendly library supplies, ones that use less plastic, recyclable materials. Utilize cafes that support environmentally safer methods for grinding beans and fair-trade coffee.
13 Climate Action Support campus sustainability initiatives, hold used clothing swaps, hold DIY events, or create a sustainability speaker series.	14 Life Below Water Librarians assist researchers studying dolphins and whales in Florida to identify pollutants.	15 Life on Land Libraries support collections on forestry, wildlife, fisheries, zoology, entomology, wildlife management and more.
16 Peace, Justice &amp; Strong Institutions Service work to the community and institution as part of tenure, promotion, and reappointment activities. Participation in university shared governance.	17 Partnerships for Goals Participating in international professional organizations and memberships for libraries that work towards achieving the SDGs.	2030 AGENDA  FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT